

MADE WITH LOVE PASSION & PRIDE

*We know a thing or two about leather.
That's because we keep making high quality, comfy and stylish products, all right here in Kenya. Those decades of hours of dedication leading to experience and expertise, mean that we're proud to bring you a range that is of unbeatable quality, and service that's second to none. This is the paradise of leather - EDEN - Leather Goods.*

INSPIRE

It starts with our inspiration to make leather products that uphold the beauty and intuitive design of the lands they hail from. But it goes further. We refuse to do less than create items that also fulfill an almost invisible level of functionality. Our guarantee to you is that every EDEN creation will not only be an item of beautiful form, but will invariably be one of incredible utility.

ation

Eden is an African brand that designs & produces quality handmade leather goods and accessories for both retail and corporate using locally sourced materials and craftsmanship.

We have created a platform that empowers young people in our community to learn a craft & social skills which transforms their lives by enabling them to sustain themselves economically & promoting them to use their maximum potential while ensuring youth transition into adulthood with the skills, capacities for sustainable livelihoods.

We bring to life the instinctive, age-old African relationship with leather-craft through an inspired and modern production process. What results are pieces that stand the test of quality, and boast a unique Afropolitan style. EDEN® Leather Goods are designed to look the part in valleys of the Kenyan Rift or on the picturesque landscapes of Africa alike.

Each and every one of our leather goods are handcrafted with a generous measure of passion, attention to detail, and needless to say, love.

The intrinsic art of leather craft — has virtually existed from the beginning of time and handmade leather goods are part and parcel of our daily lives. With leather crafting in our gene, we cannot help but combine beautiful and practical designs to share with the world. The raw edges, sleekness and durability of our leather products are the EDEN · covenant.
